Sticks and Stones

Babyshambles

Now here's a tale
Tale I will tell
Blood lust after no sweet love
And a many, many things I do so wellOh you know that's the end
That's the end so far away downThey said that I was as good as dead
And there was hope, but not for us together
My friend, my only friendOh well you know that that's the end
And that's the end so far away downSkip... fame on the run
Don't look back into the motherfucking sun, no
Oh well you know that that's the end
And that's the end so far away downSticks and stones
May break my bones
Oh but your words
They really kill meSticks and sto-o-o-o-ones
May break my bo-o-o-o-ones
Sticks and stones may break my bones
Oh but your words they really kill meAnd there you know that's the end
But there can never be and end
