

Body and Soul

Jimmy Raney

My heart is sad and lonely
For you I sigh, for you dear only
    Why haven't you seen it
I'm all for you body and soulI spend my days in longing
    And wondering why it's me you're wronging
        I tell you I mean it
I'm all for you body and soulI can't believe it
    It's hard to conceive it
        That you'd turn away romance
            Are you pretending
                It looks like the ending
Unless I could have just one more chance to prove, dearMy life a wreck you're making
    You know I'm yours for just the taking
I'd gladly surrender myself to you body and soul
