Break Me Through

Bebo Norman

Today I woke up early, today I woke up sad
It's funny how it hurts me, yeah, yeah, yeah
The love I've never had
But I can feel You breaking me through this mess
I can feel You through this lonelinessYou show me that
Life shines with You
You show me that
Life shines with You
So break me throughI think that I can hear it, is it a trumpet or a train?
And now I'm drawing near it, yeah, and it's calling out my name
I got nothing to lose, I got nothing to prove in this mess
There's nothing to lose but all this emptinessSo, show me that
Life shines with You
You show me that
Life shines with You
So break me throughAnd if I had a ladder to reach up to the sky
I would climb up there forever, yeah, yeah, yeah
It would just be You and I
And though I feel You, breaking me through this mess
I would feel You through this lonelinessYou show me that
Life shines with You
You show me that
Life shines with You
Yeah, yeahYou show me that
Life shines with You
So break me through
Break me through
Break me through
Break me through
