

Upside Down Cross

Die Mannequin

Whose there, coming up slowly?
Starting to grow on me
Perfect and lonely
Go there, why should I go there?
Ill let it go and let her explode there Shake these suffragette stories
Witches and warnings that tether the holding
Control me, hit me and scold me
The hurtful unholy, it's endless and endless This way and that way
Hows it going to be
And what's wrong with me now?
When I cant help to be Whos there, shaking, Im shaking
Trusted and fading, tell me you hate it
Know me, ghost in your story
Second unholy, takes one to know me Whos there?
Suffered and senseless
Committed to kill this whispers and witness
Control me, hit me and scold me
The hurtful unholy, it's endless and endless This way and that way
Hows it going to be
And whats wrong with me now?] When I cant help to be this way and that way
No one knows but everyones sure that
This way or that way, hows it going to be? Give up the ghost
Hide here with me and Ill die here for you
And Ill hide here with me and Ill give up the ghost Whos there, coming up slowly?
Starting to grow on me
Perfect and only
Go there, why should I go there?
Whats there to show?
When everyone knows it, they know
