

Felicity (live)

Orange Juice

I objected
When they took it away from here
Honesty
That could not have been much more than me One must be strong
For without, the weather will change
But within remain unchanged
The things for which we strive For happiness, I guess
When you lay it on the ground
Felicity, I guess so
Felicity, I guess so Now I'm in a stupor
Behind the scenes which say, this was is okay
The clarity of my eyes
Shines both in memories of past victories
Fine scenes shining while shining white Felicity, I guess so
Felicity, I guess so Take me to the bridge now
Happiness
Oh, oh, happiness
Oh, oh, happiness
This is the sound of happiness
