Nobody Knows You

Anis

Louis used to be somebody
Louis says he was
Late at night he ruled the city
Late at night he was
Flying to the South Pacific
Flying all the time
Beautiful girls by his side
Beautiful girls all the timeNobody knows you when you're down and out
Nobody knows you
You had everything, but you shut down
Now nobody knows you
When you're down, down
Down, downLouis eyes are red and raw
Louis always cries
Lost it all and then some more
Lost it all, he cries
Nobody calls him anymore
Nobody cares
His family has closed the door
Nobody caresNobody knows you when you're down and out
Nobody knows you when you're
You had everything, but you shut down
Now nobody knows you
When you're down, down
Down, down
When you're down, down
Down, down
