Good to Your Earhole

Funkadelic

I'm going to give you what you're here for
I've got the means to take you there
I'm not here to kill you softly
But I promise to be good to your earholePut your hands together, come on and stomp your feet, Lord
Put your hands together, come on and get in beat
There's a good time waiting for you, come on and let's get freeMashing your brain like silly putty
Leaving you in a better frame of mind
Drowning out the voices that bug you
But I promise to be good to your earholePut your hands together, come on and stomp your feet, Lord
Put your hands together, come on and get in beat
There's a good time waiting for you, come on and let's get freeI'm not here to kill you softly
But I promise to be good to your ear holePut your hands together, come on and stomp your feet, Lord
Put your hands together, come on and get in beat
There's a good time waiting for you, come on and let's get free
