Who Can You Trust

Ivy Levan

The heart is a hunter
And hot as stone
Cold blood in the chamber
Bullets humbleInto the night you will fall
Where there's no wrong or right
Rough justice for allThis love is power and lust
When you're hungry for a hero
I'll feed you sweet lies But
Who else can you trust?The son of the silent
A moth to the flame
Deliver the poison
Then forget my nameInto this way you will crawl
Every night when every wanting Ã¢EËœcause
You wanted herOho, I drink from my cup
The clock is striking zero
Bring me to boil, I give it upThis love is with diamonds and lust
You may find my smile deceitful
But after it all
Who else can you trust?When you're all alone
And there's no one around
I will call you up just to bring you down
If the price is right I will see you out
But no one can touch the way that I touch youWhen you're down in the dust
And they fight for good and they fall
Bet on both sides, do what you mustThis love ??? for us
One night like other people
You've got my number,
But who else can you trust?
Who else can you trust?
Who else can you trust?
Who else can you trust?
