

Blood Is Thicker Than Water

Upon This Dawning

You can be sure, I'll always do my best to never let you downI know you won't let me down

You're the light that will never leave me

You light up my way

I can always count on youAnd I swear

I will keep it close

'cause your love's the most precious thing that I've ever had

And I know you will do the same

'cause our friendship's what keeps us aliveI know you won't let me down

You're the light that will never leave me

You light up my way

I can always count on youLet me say we are more than friends

'cause we are brothers, and brothers are fucking blood

And brothers are a fucking familyI can't see our future

But I'm sure, yeah, that we'll be togetherI swear

I will keep it close

'cause your love's the most precious thing that I've ever had

And I know you will do the same

'cause our friendship's what keeps us aliveI know you won't let me down

You're the light that will never leave me

You light up my way

I can always count on you

This is my love that will last forever
