

Dong-Dong-Di-Ki-Di-Gi-Dong

Golden Earring

Dong dong diki diki dong
and your heart goes dong diki diki dong
You gotta sing it, oh everywhere
In New York City, Memphis, Delaware We'll sing it loud, and you'll be proud To sing it with me, untill eternity
So you hear this melody
Well sing it along and you'll feel free
You feel uptight and upsight down
Well sing it along and join me around
Dong dong diki diki dong
and your heart goes dong diki diki dong
You gotta wear, a pair of ugly old jeans
To dance in California, Nashville, New Orleans
You gotta swing and you gotta move me you gotta make me feel glad you gotta make me feel groovy
so you hear this melody
Well sing it along and you'll feel free
You feel uptight and upside down
Well sing it along and join me around
Dong dong diki diki dong
and your heart goes dong diki diki dong
