Somebody

The J. Geils Band

I didn't take the warning
I really didn't care
I had already gone too far
To let them steal my shareSo, like a fool I took 'em on
And as my anger cool
I realized I could take all mine
And skip off with theirs, tooI know I must be crazy
I'm bound to wake up deadSomebody, somebody
Waitin' outside my back door
Somebody, somebody
Tryin' to even up the scoreI figured I should lay real low
And stayed away from town
I covered up all my moves
So, it'd be hard to track me downBut I started gettin' shaky
And I paced around the floor
Hiding out all alone
I couldn't take much moreJust sitting 'round here waitin'
Is drivin' me up the wallSomebody, somebody
Waitin' outside my back door
Somebody, somebody
Tryin' to even up the scoreSo, I called up my old friend Marlene
Who was lookin' for some fun
I got drunk and like a fool
I told her, what I'd doneI heard them knockin' at my door
They got to me at last
It don't take much to figure out
How they'd found me out so fastAnd when I looked for my Marlene
I saw that she was goneSomebody, somebody
Waitin' outside my back door
Somebody somebody
Tryin' to even up the scoreSomebody, somebody
Waitin' outside my back door
Somebody, somebody
Tryin' to even up the scoreSomebody, somebody
Waitin' outside my back door
Somebody, somebody
Tryin' to even up the score
