Behind The Scenes

Greyhounds

After the sun
Before to run
all around inside of my head try to get out of the pressure maybe don't pay off to stay on standbyFading sensibility don't stay asleep (next to the fire)Spit the truth, look into your heart(I wont be another soul)
fuck you
born to lie
word by word
you have destroy my hope (i wont be another sound)After to smile before to cry
we learn to watch it all
try to get out of the pressure
enjoy the music if you feel up Fall for this soundSpit the truth, look into your heart(I wont be another soul)
fuck you
born to lie
word by word
you have destroy my hope (i wont be another sound)Choose your way from beginning choose what make you shake!!
