Whimper

Ãœnloco

Closer, more than you feel
Another piece of me lashes out
When I'm losing all control
But then I, I see your ways and everything that never changed
It's still in you, it's still in you
It's all this hate, I don't want this
And pain, I don't need this
And hate, I don't want this
It's not the same whimper with me
Too much like a bad dream
Another memory lashes out and I'm losing all control
But then I, I seem to fake everything that once was great
It's still in me, it's still in me
It's all this hate, I don't want this
And pain, I don't need this
And hate, I don't want this
It's not the same whimper with me
I don't want this, and I don't need this
And I don't want this
It's not the same whimper with me
So, so, so step off the line
I can see in your face
How reality breaks
Like the fuckers with the drive-by
It's all the same thing
Everything is gonna fade
Pretend to try
That you wanna be like me
If all the faces looking down
Means you got none
When you think you solve a problem you create one
So look in to find, look in to find and hate yourself, -self, -self
Look deep inside yourself, -self, -self
It's all this hate, I don't want this
And pain, I don't need this
And hate, I don't want this
It's not the same whimper with me
I don't want this, and I don't need this, and I don't want this
It's not the same whimper with me
