Democrator

Comecon

Who opened the door for the democrator?
And how come he let in the market-conquistadors?
Why is he acting as if he has something to hide?
The privilege of the stupid is to be taken for a rideGloomy working days, bright TV nights
There's a world ahead, we can also see it's lights
And the road there starts on the other side
Of the screen, where life's endless Mercedes ridesWho opened the door for the democrator?
And how come he let in the market-conquistadors?
Why is he acting as if he has something to hide?
The privilege of the stupid is to be taken for a rideSo we smashed the screen but it all went black
We tore down that wall and we all sacked
The fruits of KDW, we were small to reach
The only thing we got was freedom of speechWho opened the door for the democrator?
And how come he let in the market-conquistadors?
Why is he acting as if he has something to hide?
The privilege of the stupid is to be taken for a rideHappy ever after in Deutschneyland
Happy ever after in Deutschneyland
Happy ever after in Deutschneyland
