

Breach Birth

Chevelle

Be brave, reshape
Can't force all into molds
Passing out schematics
Forcing all into moldsOnce more about to change
Some try and fall beneath, moldsWell it's your right so
I'll keep on this path
Turning around
Bending the shape
Cutting it in
We could excel beyond
The latter, the fools
Start a new tone
Hating the same
Well empty the roomSo create, reclaim
Sovereign shapes tempting us
Ration out, their schematics
Dare we live without moldsSo far what's left between
They try and fail beneath, moldsWell it's your right so
I'll keep on this path
Turning around
Bending the shape
Cutting it in
We could excel beyond
The latter, the fools
Start a new tone
Hating the same
Well empty the roomFeel locked in a room
And starting to choke
Enticing the shame
Awaken a worldWell it's your right so
I'll keep on this path
Turning around
Bending the shape
Cutting it in
We could excel beyond
The latter, the fools
Start a new tone
Hating the same
Well empty the roomSo be brave, reshape

So create, reclaim

Be brave

Shape

Reshape

So create

Shape

Reclaim
