

Caprice

Martynas Kuliavas

Put me right through the ringer
Run around with eyes on whatever Cut me down to half of a member
Mended back given no hope
Scheming minds new intentions
Leave it broke flat begging for more You've made up your mind
Whatever comes to your head
Can never rely Everything points to the wrong direction
Everything leading to any early decline
Can't take this any longer
I'll tell you right now, hate's on the rise Just can't deal with anymore wavering
Can't fit into anymore lies
Take your eyes to a brand new picture
Reach for one more impulse buy You've made up your mind
Whatever comes to your head
Can never rely on nothing Oh, yeah, it's me the loser
Oh, yeah, did everything wrong
Go ahead with all your craving
Go ahead yearn for more You've made up your mind
Whatever comes to your head
Can never rely on nothing Can never rely
Can never rely
Want to never rely
