

It Doesn't Have to Be This Way

KingCharlie Prince

Never Meant To Hurt You
By KingCharlie Prince

VERSE (1)

Thinking bout the that we once shared

When one was depressed we use to show how much we really really cared

But it seem to me everything is not the same

If I'm the blame then tell me girl what is the claim

Love is perfection and hell is imperfection

You knowledge God and you will be full of protection

You be my queen and I'll be your king

As one power we could build or destroy anything

But first what we need is a lot of communication

You and I V-E-R-S-E to bring a higher elevation

Of understanding in order for us to see

The equality of you and me

You be the moon and I'll be the sun

If we work together, umm, we'll be as one

Now there's an old saying, no pain, no gain

Now it's my time to alleviate the pain

*****CHORUS*****

I never meant to hurt you
So won't you please forgive me girl
It doesn't have to be this way

Just let me make it up to you

VERSE (2)

You're the light that shines when I'm gone to carry on

Things that I do is only done to make you strong

See the star depends on the light when you glow

Cause now you know, and it's time to let it show

It is the understanding, which is the best part

And once you got that, then you know where to start

So when something is done you won't get twisted out of shape

You would handle it calm and you wouldn't deviate

And then we could move in a universal order

Together in harmony we'll evaporate the waters

In the midst the naked eye couldn't see

Just you and I -- V-E-R-S-E

I know it's difficult when I'm away, but it's okay

You can talk to me baby and say what you gotta say

It hurt even more when you hold it inside

Just because I didn't tell you doesn't mean I told a lie

VERSE (3)

When I think about you, I think about us

When I think about you, I think about trust

When I think about you, I think about lust

When I think about you, I feel it's a must

When I think about you, I still got a crush

When I think about you, I remember your blush

When I think about you, I remember your touch

When I think about you, Loving you is not enough

Aww yeah

Forgive me
