Paint a new World

Helloween

We all know the feeling, its frightenin' sometimes
When we catch the news on the radio
Death, war, destruction, limitless pain
All the tears that have been criedTime is running, years gone by
No one to break the silence
What we do is what we get
We harvest what we've sownPoles are melting, holes in the sky
Woods are on fire
Scary pollution, our worlds gonna die
Look what we do, it's madnessI paint a new world
Colors of magic are brightenin'
Paint a new world
Moon sun and stars are risin'I paint a new world
Magical brushes will lighten
A tame new world
Earth, wind, fire and seaI hear all those voices, I see all the signs
Of killing, rape, forced conformity
Hedonism, decay, deaf dumb and blind
Where do we go from hereTime is running, years gone by
No one to break the silence
What we do is what we get
We harvest what we've sownWho will wage the next few wars
Wreak havoc on the masses
Politics, religion soaked up with lies
See what we do? It's madnessI paint a new world
Colors of magic are brightenin'
Paint a new world
Moon sun and stars are risin'I paint a new world
Magical brushes will lighten
A tame new world
Earth, wind, fire and sea
