Lies

Wild Orchid

boy it comes as no suprise
as i looked into your eyes i seen all those other girls youve been caught telling those lies boy i knew it from the start you could never break my heart you didn't think i was this wise
you tried to play me baby you must have been crazy your running around having your fun all the while you thought you'd have it easy saying that I'm the only one but why
1 now what your doing
2 who you think your fooling 3 did you think i couldn't see i wasn't at home watching tv
boy i knew it from the start
lets get straight to the point every time that you went out i new what you were about your wondering how i found out that you were cheating on me how could you be so cruel you tried to hide the truth beind the wall
but why

youve been caught telling me lies
i wasn't at home waiting baby i was out there playing you you were out there playing at home
at home waiting I've seen it in your eyes i knew it from the start my heart
didn't think i was so wise when i look into your eyes
you been caught telling those lies
the start
