I Confess to All This Mess

The Stereo

you don't have to run away cause you're ok with me and you don't have to be afraid cause it's alright with me i have only myself to blame it's a shame, is it true? all the clues point to me, is it true? that's not me now i'm through i would have guessed you would have passed this test so i confess to all this mess i know what i've been told and that"s how the story goes everyday people call themselves emo it's just a bad disguise is it something hidden in their eyes it's big surprise, it's a bunch of lies
