Charm Light

Patti Scialfa

You know I got a string of kisses
Tattooed down my arm
From the love of lonely men
That always came to harm
Tattooed down my arm
To my fingertips
You ain't the only lonely
Man that I've ever kissed
But when the night
Is sinking low
Hold me baby oh
And don't let go
'Cause when you turn
That charm light on me
Yeah, you turn all the wrong
In my world right
When you turn
That charm light on me
Make it so pretty
Make it all seem rightYou know I saw
Those fallen crosses
Those broken stones of faith
Knew I could name the sorrow
That haunts the side of your face
Yeah I could name the sorrow
And somehow set you free
I knew you'd be the one
Who'd do the same for me
So when the night is sinking low
Come on baby oh here we go
'Cause when you turn
That charm light on me
Yeah, you turn all the wrong
In my world right
When you turn
That charm light on me
Make it so pretty
make it all seem rightNow I know love
Ain't no fairy tale

Ain't so pretty or so pure
There's a train of unforgiveness
For things that came before
But I know who I am
And I wash myself clean
Of all that muddy water
And all those railroad dreams
So when the night is sinking low
'Cause when you turn
That charm light on me
Yeah, you turn all the wrong
In my world right
That charm light on me
Make it so pretty
Make it all seem rightTurn the light on me
Turn the light on me now
Turn the light on me
