

The Edge

Mansun

Cast your stone now, he who never sins
Clearly all your roles are now defined
(You've got yours but I have broken mine)
Simply just reflections
Of my honest professional belief that I am God
(I am God) Stop me before I go over the edge
Stop me before I go over the edge
Stop me before I Happy children specially in need
(Send them to the dentist they will bleed)
Before you get to know ex-hesitate
(Could be gay or could be straight) Your mental state which separates
The action from intention, wash your hands
(Wash your hands)
