Breaking Me Down

Downhere

Break the balance down
That's no way to go about it
Beautiful the sound
I heard those shackles hit the ground, yeahYou got me drowning in Your oceanLove's breaking me down
Like waves to stone, over and over
Your love's breaking new ground
And changing my every way, yeahTear these towers down
And all that I built for myself, yeah
Lay a new foundation
I know You're not done with me yetYou got me drowning deep in Your oceanLove's breaking me down
Like waves to stone, over and over
Your love's breaking new ground yeah
Changing my every wayYou've got me living, truly living
Yeah, yeahLove's breaking me down
Like waves to stone, over and over
Your love's breaking new ground
And changing my every way, yeah, yeahLove's breaking me down
Waves to stone, over and over
Your love's breaking this whole ground
And changing my every way
