Everyone Thinks He Looks Daft

Wedding Present

Oh, why do you catch my eye, then turn away?
I thought we said all the things we had to say
Shawn said he saw you holding hands with your new friend
How does it feel to know you've just won again?Don't give me that
Because you were seen
Everyone thinks he looks daft
But you can have your dreamCan I keep that book of yours and maybe this one too?
Oh sure, I'll bring them 'round tomorrow, if that will do
Was it really full? They must have queued there since half past 3
I didn't go, was it a good film? Well, that's just me!Don't give me that
Because you were seen
Everyone thinks he looks daft
But you can have your dream
Oh, you can have your dreamGuess who I saw by your old house just the other day
That kid we used to think was mad, but now he looks okay
I think someone's here, look at the window, I can't make out who Oh, I'd love to stay but I've really got so many things to doDon't give me that
Because you were seen
Everyone thinks he looks daft
But you can have your dreamDon't give me that
Because you were seen
Everyone thinks he looks daft
But you can have your dream
