Endlessly

Mercury Rev

Standing in a dream, weaving through the crowded streets
Leaving you again, endlessly
The choir disappears and voices in your head appear
Leading you again, endlesslyIf the armies of her soul, take you by surprise and flee
Leaving you again, endlessly
And the dark ships of her eyes surrender to you suddenly
Leading you again, endlesslyStanding in a street, the line beneath the falling leaves
Leading her again, endlessly
And of all the stars above only one reminds her of
Leaving you again, endlessly
