

The Game

Cold Chisel

My friend's wife, she plays the game
She plays it with me all the time
Makes me feel pretty good, I guess
Hey, that's a pretty dress
But you shouldn't have
No, you shouldn't have
Let me know
No, you shouldn't have
You just shouldn't have
Let it go
Play with me
Don't play with me
Don't play
Play with me
Don't play with me
Don't play
Don't you wanna play the game
If I were a renegade
And you were the county line
Would I have to cross it now
I got yours, you got mine
But you shouldn't have
No, you just shouldn't have
Let it go
Play with me
Don't play with me
Don't play
Play with me
Don't play with me
Don't play
Don't you wanna play the game
Now jealousy is just a game
Ties you up that wraps around your brain
Makes you feel like you might hurt yourself
Makes you feel insane
Play with me
Don't play with me
Don't play
Play with me

Don't play with me
Don't play
Don't you wanna play the game
Don't you wanna play the game
