

Strange Days

George

An old lady helps me as I'm crossing the road
She sees the direction and the weight of my load
She points to a man taking peace to the poor
And a record is broken by the arm of the law And you and I as we skate, pitch or ride
We seek our adventures in the places we hide
The pendulum dances, opinion poles swing
Not to mention the meaning of contemporary things[PRE-CHORUS]
We're chasing the feeling that our money can't buy
Our pocket books empty but we're ready to try[CHORUS]
On strange days everything is stranger
And don't I know nothing comes without danger
On strange days everything is stranger
Don't I know nothing comes without danger Drowning not waving in a film title end
Our mothers and fathers have postcards to send
We calculate the loss and unfortunate things
And the healthy economy that good warfare brings[PRE-CHORUS]
We're chasing the feeling that our money can't buy
Our pocket books empty but we're ready to try[CHORUS]
On strange days everything is stranger
And don't I know nothing comes without danger
On strange days everything is stranger
Don't I know nothing comes without danger
