The End

The Classic Crime

Call me a liar, call me your friend
I will let you down again
Cause I'm a disaster of epic proportions
I will let you down againI am not worthy to be called your savior
I am not going to catch all your blame
But to warn you some may fall on my nameHow could you do this to all your believers?
How could you do this to all of your friends?
You know this is the end
I know this is the end
I know this is the end
