

Tryna Find Myself

Busty and the Bass

Tryna find myself again i notice that, you don't notice that
When i find myself again i go with your childish bulshit

~

Swear i've seen this place before, sometime somewhere
See, i know you know we've been here for too long

Don't you know that, i can't stand (won't stand it)
This ain't something we can heal yah
And i can't take it (won't take it)
But you got to know, there's no way that we'll make it

Tryna find myself again i notice that, you don't notice that
When i find myself again i go with your childish bulshit

Tryna find myself again i notice that, you don't notice that
When i find myself again i go with your childish bulshit

Swear i've heard this song before
Used to sound me so nice, but now i see
You've been more than nothing, i got to do me

And i can't stand (won't stand it)
This ain't something we can heal yah
Well i can't take it (won't take it)
But you got to know, there's no way that we'll make it

Tryna find myself again i notice that, you don't notice that
When i find myself again i go with your childish bulshit

Tryna find myself again i notice that, you don't notice that
When i find myself again i go with your childish bulshit

Instrumental*

When i find myself again i go with your childish bulshit

Instrumental*

Well don't you know i'm tryna find yeah
Know i'm tryna find

When i find myself again again again i go with

You know i go with it
You know i go with it
Ohhhh
