My Sweet Surrender

Lessdmv - My sweet surrender

I fade away,
I'll go far just remember that i loved the way we used to pretend can feel the rain that holded us apart?
your my sweet surrender

Come here close, it will be alright just forget those things which have hurted you hard that night

Don't look back home this arms will be that place to cry alone, and leave this behind can feel the pain that holded us apart?
your my sweet surrender

Love me please, can you feel my heart?
cause i'm burning slow through heaven's flames and lights

If we might just try to forget about our lifes then we'd burn slow throught the flames of our love

I'll stay here for you
love, stay here for me
love stay here for me

Come here close, it will be alright
