Former Lover

Saint Etienne

Milan, when I was a kitten
We'd sit and sing old songs
Milan, when I was a kitten
We'd sit and sing old songsIn my head, listening to wind chimes
Married a fool, I know
In my head, listening to wind chimes
Married a fool, I knowWhy on Earth didn't I wait for you?
Now look and see who's paying
Why on Earth didn't I wait for you?
Now look and see who's payingThose days on Radio One
Set in the East, who cares?
Those days on Radio One
Set in the East, who cares?Close all of the doors, Maisie
Make sure he knows I'm gone
Close all of the doors, Maisie
Make sure he knows I'm goneClose down over the ocean
Open the doors, fresh air
Close down over the ocean
Open the doors, fresh air
