Empty Vision

M.O.D.

A paralyzed mind embracing decay
Dead like carrion just wasting away
There is nothing
Numbed by excess and complete saturation
Scarred influence by degeneration
There is nothing, there is nothing to believe
All has been lost
All have lost their way
Every eye has been disgraced
Dead like carrion
We must carry on
There is nothing
Lost innocence and blank revelations
Searching for a hope in static transmissions
There is nothing, there is nothing to believe
All has been lost
All have lost their way
Every eye has been disgraced
There is no reason for empty vision
All has been lost
All have lost their way
All has been lost
All have lost their way
Every eye has been disgraced
There's no reason for empty vision
