Good Goodbye

Lianne La Havas

Old man, let me wipe your eyes
I've never seen you cryOld friend, in our own sweet time
We'll say a good goodbye
All my life I know by nowAll these memories, too much to lose
No one ever leaves you
I don't need faith, I don't need truth
No one ever leaves youYou'd say this is all there is
And every time you'd blink
You'd miss another piece of this wondrous world
All I'd ask is why you'd leave so soon
Everybody seems to
I don't need faith I just want you
No one ever leaves youEverybody raise a glass heres to a good goodbye
Everybody raise a glass heres to a good goodbye
Everybody raise a glass heres to a good goodbye
Oh, everybody raise a glass, ohAll these memories too much to lose
No one ever leaves you
I don't need faith I don't need truth
No one ever leaves you
I don't need faith I just want proof
