An Island

Chevelle

They said this fun, is near the end You've worn out welcome way too fast You'd better bite your tongueI need an island And I need it fast Some little island Is all I askPut, put you on Put, put you onStay there don't move I think it's got fangs Watch if they turn Become the villainsAre you allowed to know? Are we allowed to know? Are you allowed to know? Are you allowed to know? Are we allowed to know? Are you allowed to know?Just an island Is all I ask Some little island A spot to castTo put you on To put you onForce you to goSome little island One little islandTo put you on (Some little island) To put you on (One little island) To put you on (To put you on, put you on, put you on) To put you on (To pout you on, put you on, put you on)
