

We Are The Ones

Melissa Etheridge

Dreaming from the bottom of the well
We're curled up in the corner of our cell
Freedom is just a story that we tell
I say give me liberty or give me hell
I know life is just a song
If I can get the world to sing along
Brothers and sisters
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
There are differences we cannot hide
Yet we are all one spirit deep inside
Finding out our past has been denied
Now we can tell our story, start to question why
Climbing out from under fear
We'll know what we're doing here
Brothers and sisters
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
Who built this pyramid a hundred years ago?
'Cause we're trapped inside a grid
While they feeds us what we need to know
The scientists keep telling me
That we are all what we agree
So I agree to let you be
Anyone you want to be
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for

We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
Hey, every stranger you see is a part of you
Teaching we are the ones
Every stranger you see is a part of you
Teaching we are the ones
We are all there is, we are the all that is
And we can get through this, we are the ones
Oh, we are all there is, we are the all that is
And we can get through this, we are the ones
The ones we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones
I feel you, you feel me
I feel you, you feel me
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
We are the ones, we are the ones, we are the ones
The ones that we're waiting for
I feel you, you feel me
I feel you, you feel me
I feel you, you feel me
I feel you, you feel me, I feel you
