

Sunrise (Re-Recording) [Bonus Track]

Amberian Dawn

Wind is blowing through my wounded soul
Darkness shades me as I'm longing and yearning
Darkness surrounds me swallowing me into endless night
Watching the moonlight
Waiting for sunrise
To bring the light into night!
Like a white rider
Riding on sun-rays
To take me back into light, into light!
Warm my soul and melt the ice of my heart
Melt the snow which covers up my broken chest
Your heart is frozen longing for sunrise to melt the ice
Watching the moonlight
Waiting for sunrise
To bring the light into night!
Like a white rider
Riding on sun-rays
To take me back into light, into light!
Watching the moonlight
Waiting for sunrise
To bring the light into night!
Like a white rider
Riding on sun-rays
To take me back into light, into light!
