

Save Your Soul

Hermitage Green

When all your money has been spent
You can work out where it all went We'll buy and sell your dreams at every breath Don't you listen and don't forget
The ground will open and doors will close You've no idea which way to go It's best to stumble down that road you know Find the courage and be the one to Say what you want Take what you need
and save your soul
Face what you run from,
love what you leave
and save your soul
Born to die so shine like gold Only love brings a brief parole Often swayed but never swept And when green turns to red no I don't want to live no I don't want to live with regret Say what you want
Take what you need
and save your soul
Face what you run from,
love what you leave
and save your soul
Say what you want
Take what you need
and save your soul
Face what you run from,
love what you leave
and save your soul
Say what you want
Take what you need
and save your soul
Face what you run from,
love what you leave
and save your soul
Say what you want

Take what you need
and save your soul
Face what you run from,
love what you leave
and save your soul.
