Eye To Eye

Sheryl Crow

Blood and wine may flow
Only love and war make history
We must share flesh and bone
But we don't share philosophy
Some people got a ways to go
Some lessons they don't ever learn
To keep your enemies close
The other cheek you soon will turn
If we don't see eye to eye
Doesn't mean that we can't try to get along
If we don't see eye to eye
No matter what, you and ,I we belong together, together
Don't lay your worries on me
I got my own to keep me company
Talk is like a worn out suit
Comes unraveled when it turns cheap
You can have all that I own
But my soul you'll never keep
I'll dig a hole and call it home
'Cause I have learned how to dig deep, how do dig deep
If we don't see eye to eye
Doesn't mean that we can't try to get along
If we don't see eye to eye
No matter what, you and I, we belong together, we belong
If we don't see eye to eye
Doesn't mean that we can't try to get along, get along
If we don't see eye to eye
No matter what, you and I, we belong together, together
