

Boom Boom (Heartbeat) (feat. Rachel K Collier)

Ray Foxx

Another night another day
I'm moving love in every beat that's played
Suddenly I'm out of place
Distracted by an unfamiliar face
You say come on over
Let me take control
Of you and all of what you do
Confused I blank every word you said
Confused you got a ride inside my head I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload I've gone all shy
I can speak or think I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time Boom boom boom
Boom boom boom Surrounding our hand on my face
I like your subtle touch and your slow pace
Sounds of you with sounds of me
This perfect loss is happening naturally You say let me hold you
Let me take control
Of you and of what we do
I can feel your energy inside of me
Electricity explodes from our bodies I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload I've gone all shy
I can speak or think I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time Boom boom boom
Boom boom boom I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload I've gone all shy
I can speak or think I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time

You made my heart beat (I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight)
You made my heart beat (My pulse on overload I've gone all shy)
You made my heart beat (I can speak or think I want you as mine)
You made my heart beat in and out of time Boom boom boom

Boom boom boom You made my heart beat (beat beat)

You made my heart beat (beat beat)

You made my heart beat (beat beat)

You made my heart beat in and out of time

Boom boom boom
