

Sure Shot

Run Kid Run

Rise up to love, and Your voice in the crowd
Sing Your song aloud to those who just oppose the sound
 We've got such a long way to go
 Learning to trust while losing full control
Come fashion me for all to see, You and meThis is a sure shot, why cant we just stop?
 And lose our gravity, rise up to reality
 This is a sure shot, why cant we just stop?
Echoing, echoing the worldI hear You sweet, so soft and subtle voice
 Calling my name yet whispering Your words to me
 A sure shot guarantee, so wake me up, I've had enough
 I've shut You out, closed my mouth, too long to bleed sincerity
Im not into deep, now Im awake, in You I found escapeThis is a sure shot, why cant we just stop?
 And lose our gravity, rise up to reality
 This is a sure shot, why cant we just stop?
Echoing, echoing, echoing, echoingIts time to face the world, face the world
 Come together boys and girls, boys and girls
 Voices lifted to the one rising up
 Were going in with heads held high
 Our eyes are lifted to the sky, to the sky
Singing praises to the one worthy ofWe are the voices of today
 A generation that seeks Your way
 We are the voices of today
 We seek Your face
 Echoing Your name today
