Psyche

Massive Attack

I'm looking for you in the woods tonight
I'm looking, looking for you with my flashlight
I'm searching from in the high or down the ocean
And I pace myself in reason
Gain the wolf, gain the wolfConjure me as a child
Slipping down a wet side
Stretch up, I cannot reach him
Jumping up they drag him from the waterI watch them march him into life
I watch them take him from the pale
Into the sky for your eagle eye
The sun seeds a sickle and a scytheRidicule they won't allow Quench abuse and let love flower
Rip the cage out of your chest
Let the chaos fool the restShow without showing
What you know without knowing
Twigs snap, I catch no canoe only you and me
Alone on the old tea hope seaDissolving who we are
Call out for yesterday's destiny gone
We're on a foreign shoreIt was the mark of falling
I was the car still running
And when you call I'll be your shield for life
And if you feel it you will flyThe sun set a bigger me
And I was set to fall in
As I was set to fall in
As I was set to fall in
As I was set to fall inAs I was set to fall in
As I was set to fall in
As I was set to fall in
As I was set to fall in
As I was set to fall in
