Purified

Tamar Kaprelian

How can it be that every time
I've lost myself and I've gone out of line,
You're there.
Why is it that when I'm such a wreck,
I look at the life that I want to forget,
You remind me I'm okay?
You remind me I'm okay.CHORUS:
You make me feel alive.
You make me feel like I,
Have something to believe in.
Something that feels right.
When I need a hand,
You give me something to believe in.
I'm purified.I'm purified.How you can I tell when I'm on the edge,
My heart's unrefined and about to give in,
You see right through my flaws.
How do you know when nothing is clear,
the right things to say, so I can heal and face another day.
Hope you never go away.(CHORUS)BRIDGE:
The first ray of light after the storm,
When all my limits return to norm.
So many pieces, now just one.
I feel like life has just begun.(CHORUS X2)I'm purified.
