Fiction

Nik Kershaw

If you wrote a book with a page for each memory
And put it in hardback for people to buy The critics would laugh, yeah they'd call it ridiculous
And sit around waiting for Porky to flyThe truth is stranger than fiction
And I must believe what I see
But the truth is stranger than fiction to meIf they made a film of the book of the memory
With Bobby De Niro and Demi De Moore You'd sit in your seat with your popcorn and chocolate
And wonder aloud at the point of it allThe truth is stranger than fiction
And I must believe what I see
But the truth is stranger than fiction to meIf it can happen it will happen it has happened already If you don't understand, no reason and no rhyme
Don't ask whyIf someone had told you you'd be where you are today
You'd of thought they were crazy and laughed in their face
And I never thought I would long for the memory
I never thought I would get to this placeBut
The truth is stranger than fiction
And I must believe what I see
But the truth is stranger than fiction to me
The truth is stranger than fiction to me
