Loose ends

Sonmi451

Doing everything by halves
Got a real flare with excuses
Meeting someone at the bar
Where loose ends still have uses
It's complicated, this time I think it could be
Triangulated, it could be just what we need
So what do you say, we give it up and walk away?
We're overrated anyway
We're kissing without kissing
Got it down to a fine art
Love's supposed to keep you young and frisky
But we grew up and wide apart
Not now, not ever, no, it's never a good time
How will the good times ever roll on?
Comparing photos that are now not there
Just wondering, wondering where it all went wrong

It's complicated, this time I think it could be
Triangulated, it could be just what we need
So what do you say, we give it up and walk away?
Nothing to salvage anyway
Doo doo oh, doo doo oh, doo doo oh, none of the above
Doo doo oh, doo doo oh, doo doo oh, none of the above
Doo doo oh, doo doo oh, doo doo oh, none of the above
Doo doo oh, doo doo oh, doo doo oh
It's complicated, this time I think it could be
Triangulated, it could be just what we need
So what do you say, we give it up and walk away?
We're overrated, anyway
It's complicated, this time I think it could be
Triangulated, it could be just what we need
So what do you say, we give it up and walk away?
Nothing to salvage anyway
