My Eyes

Nero

My eyes, follow you around the room,
And I, only ever look at you,
So where you move, get a feeling I can't hide,
It's up to you, if we're gonna to do this tonight

My eyes, follow you around the room,
And I, only ever look at you,
So where you move, get a feeling I can't hide,
It's up to you, if we're gonna to do this tonight
