

So Smooth, So Appealing

The Bunny The Bear

Let me see the eyes of redemption.

Swallow it now.

Here comes the fire. My Darling, forgive me for giving up too early.

The times have kept us apart. Just bury your heart.

I guess now, we'll find out just how far we can take this. Breathe just to start. Swallow it now. The common dilemma, the black hole of existence.

The state of mind that left me in this room for hours,

Wondering where the time went, spent biting your hips.

Spent emotionless in dust.

Around the breeze I bend and tarnish.

I knew. I knew. I wish I knew. So smooth, the thrill. Follow your heart. I guess now, we found out just how far we could take this.
