

New Name

Sinkane

You're on the tip of a hungry tongue
Your new name, a new name, a new name
A name that I don't know
A key locked in the back of your throat
A new name, a new name, a new name
A name wanna know
Go on, say it, then, c'mon, say it, now
Who wasn't thinking it all along?
What a name, a new name, a little name
A name I wanna know
You want to hear me say it
You want to solve a koan
You want to hear it said aloud
