

One Last Kiss

Madina Lake

She looked at me her eyes were watering
Then I knew that this was about to end
Frozen in that moment, time was standing still
I could feel my heart sinking, fragile

Goodbye, she said theres some in this world for you,
So good luck, she said i went and found somebody new

And I gave you every waking moment
I gave you everything you wanted
And now, My love, you're giving me up

She walked away and I could hardly breath
Turn around and fell down to my knees
I'm shivering as the truth is settling
Her tomorrow is nothing to do with me

So before, you go
Could you just leave me one more kiss?

And I gave you every waking moment
I gave you everything you wanted
And now, My love, you're giving me up

And I, can't lie still
When there's someone else beside you
And I, can't lie still
'cause I'm all alone this time

I gave you everything you wanted
And now, I know you're giving me up

I remember when you were falling
And I was there just holding onto you
And I remember all those
Scars I wear that you carved in me

And I gave you every waking moment
I gave you everything you wanted

And now, I know you're giving me up

And I, can't lie still
When there's someone else beside you
And I, can't lie still
'cause I'm all alone this time

I gave you everything you wanted
And now, I know you're giving me up
