

I'm Jealous of Your Robotomy

They Ate Isengard

I've been dealing with it 405, guess you could stop me now
I don't believe we've ever met before,
Please allow me to laugh in your face
Don't mind me, I'm almost never at the scene,
But I've got scars where my senses should be
Down her cheek runs her robotomy,
I'm in love but the love's not in motion
Flow cancer to her cheating heartbeat,
For the several times I've been nailed to the ground
I've been lied to, I don't mind to,
But there's lumps in my chest i begin to forget
Please take me out with a thud
There's only isolation,
No room for implications
Waahhhh! This god damned rain
I know that it doesn't matter what I'll say
What the fuck do I say?
