

World Changers

Audio Adrenaline

We're all broken pieces
Of the same design
But Your grace redeemed us
Your spirit lives inside
We are a generation
To rise up and make You known
To every tribe, every tongue, every nation
We will go We can be world changers
We can be world changers
If we love like You do
And stand for the truth
We'll see the light break through
We can be world changers How can we be silent
When we know the One who saves
We won't keep it quiet
'Cause Your spirit makes us brave
We are a generation
To rise up and make You known
To every tribe, every tongue, every nation
We will go We can be world changers
We can be world changers
If we love like You do
And stand for the truth
We'll see the light break through
We can be world changers Someday every knee will bow
Your name will be on every mouth
But until that trumpet sounds
We will go Someday every knee will bow
Your name will be on every mouth
But until that trumpet sounds We can be world changers
We can be world changers
If we love like You do
And stand for the truth
We'll see the light break through
We can be world changers We can be world changers
(Someday every knee will bow)
We can be world changers
(Someday every knee will bow)
We can be world changers

We can be world changers
